

Costermans

Since 1839

ADRIAEN VAN DER CABEL

(1630/31 - 1705)

View of an Antique harbour

97 x 140 cm (38 1/8 x 55 1/8 inches)

Oil on canvas

Adriaen Van der Kabel (Netherlands,

Antiquated view of a harbour

Oil on canvas, 97 x 140 cm

Signed lower right on the steps: A.

Adriaen Van der Kabel:

Trained in The Hague between 1645

Adriaen van der Kabel began his career in painting. His earliest known works, including a portrait of his master as well as that of Jacobus van der Kabel, depict damp light and villages bathed in mist.

From the mid-1650s onwards, his style evolved in Southern Harbour View dated 1656, showing a style towards brighter, more architectural scenes.